November 24, 2016

Dear Friends of Holly and sjbes' Mission,

Again it is time to recount the past activities of sjbes' Mission and of mine of this past year. The most painful part of this assignment is the revisiting of not just the good times but those which were not so good. Yet as my mother, Loretta, would say, "The bad always goes with the good." Therefore, it is with constant self-discipline, I hold the tension as I re-examine the whole 2015-16 year.

Confirming last year's theme:

...Abandoning Control of What's Expected so as to Live by Unconditional Faith, Hope and Love in What's Unknown...

in the light of my vow to be obedient to My Father's gift of JOY not only in good times but in bad...I begin

"Here I am God, I come to do Your Will, not mine, but Yours."

About this time every year since 2003, sjbes' Newsletter has been compiled and sent out to advisors, volunteers, participants, students and friends. Even though it may be a bit stressful because of the commitment, it is also a time for me to contemplate all the blessings received from the fruits of sjbes' Mission. While you venture through this newsletter for 2015-16, I am hoping that one blessing in particular will visibly stand out. Though I may be poor in Spirit, I am free to be, to work and to play on God's playground while living and growing in faith by the Holy Spirit and Grace (the Living Waters) brought down by the Holy Hands of our priests in the Holy Sacraments so that I may live the "promises of Christ."

In my journal entry on 10-26 while participating in this year's October Project "The Land of the Penitente", I wrote (as sjbes' Director) "I am to act and to take action as if there's no barriers to the choices at hand for '...the Kingdom of God is at Hand.' My business is going forward,'for nothing is impossible with God.'"as I unconditionally hold onto HIS Divine Mercy.

I hope you will enjoy sjbes' and my visual year in re-view. May God bless you and all your loved ones, now and forever.

Always, Your Friend in Christ,
Holly

O Lord and Master of my life, take from me the spirit of sloth, despondency, lust for power and idle talk. But grant unto me, Thy servant, a spirit of chastity, humility, patience and love. Yea, O Lord and King, grant me to see mine own Faults and not to judge my brothers and sisters. For blessed art Thou unto ages of ages. Amen
